V. Everit Macy Sees Danger in Increase—Belmont Predicts Compensation Laws.

Predicting that Congress in the near future will enact compulsory compensation laws for the benefit of all railway employees and declaring that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has dropped all opposition to compulsory compensation and will support such measures, August Belmont made the first address at the opening of the seventeenth annual meeting of the National Civic Federation in the Hotel Astor this morning.

Mr. Belmont, in referring to the fact that the constitutionality of the Workmen's Compensation Act will be argued before the Supreme Court next Monday, said:

"Should the final decision be opposed to the compulsory principle the situation will be utterly chaotic."

The meeting, which will close tomorrow night with a banquet in the Astor, is presided over by V. Everit Macy.

Mr. Macy, in calling the meeting to order, scored "the increase in the employment of women, both married and unmarried, in the United States even under peace conditions. In this connection he said: "Notwithstanding what may be said to the contrary by our so-called feminist enthusiasts it is not possible for woman to be a homemaker, child-bearer and industrial worker at the same time."

He urged the adoption of safeguards to protect women workers retain their fitness for motherhood and advocated wages and more vocational training in the high schools and colleges.

Louis A. Coolidge, chairman of the welfare department of the league, said that unnecessary "hiring and firing" of labor was the source of an enormous financial loss to American industry. He declared that in several of the principal industrial States committees of employers have been organized to prevent this waste.

Louis H. Schram, chairman of the federation's industrial accident prevention department, read a report on "The Conservation of Human Life in Industry."

He declared that the loss caused by industrial accidents in New York State alone amounts to $40,000 a day, and that the total number of accidents for which compensation will be paid by employers in this State for 1916 is 60,000, including 1,500 deaths.

At noon a memorial service was held for Seth Low, the late president of the federation, at which Talcott Williams spoke for the public, Frank Trumbull for employers and Samuel Gompers for labor.

John H. Finley, Commissioner of Education, and Henry L. Stimson addressed the women's department at a luncheon at 1 o'clock on "Liability for Citizenship."

DOMINICAN BANDITS KILL AN AMERICAN IN BATTLE

Corporal of Marines Slightly Injured in Engagement, Says Message to Navy Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Private G. R. Olson, Fifth United States Marine Company, was instantly killed, and Corp. George Wilson, Fifty-second Company, was slightly wounded in an engagement Saturday between American marines and Santo Dominican bandits in Macoris, according to a Navy Department message today.

Capt. Knapp, commanding the American "crusade" force, reported that the fight occurred in the vicinity of the Porvenir sugar plantation.

Officials here assume that the two companies were engaged in disarming of the natives and establishing the new government under the American military authorities. The dispatch did not state what were the native losses.

EVENING WORLD WARNING BRINGS DOWN EGG PRICES

White Leghorn Eggs Still Too High, by 12 to 13 Cents a Dozen.

Following the publication last Friday in The Evening World that the wholesale prices of eggs had been reduced 8 cents with a week retailers all over town dropped their price 5 cents. On the west side women took copies of The Evening World to dairies and stores, and on Saturday the 5 cent drop came. On Friday there had been no signs of such a drop. The wholesale prices dropped still further at the close of the exchanges on Saturday, when the quotations showed from 2 1/4 to 3 cents below the prices of Friday.

The retailers are still demanding extraordinary prices for what are known as white leghorn eggs—the egg-stocking eggs. These are bringing 45 and 65 cents a dozen, or from 12 to 13 cents above the actual wholesale quotations. The present quotations for these eggs on the various exchanges are 50 and 51 cents a dozen. The wholesale quotations for fresh eggs of the first class range from 44 and 45 cents.

Charles F. Droste of Droste & Snyder, Inc., said: "The present shipments of fresh eggs warrant a reduction such as has taken place. I don't know how long this supply is going to last. If it continues, of course the wholesale price quoted at present must stand."

Ohio River Flood Warning Issued. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 22.—Heavy rains and melting snows over the watersheds of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers yesterday and last night prompted the Weather Bureau to announce to-day that the Ohio River would pass the flood stage.

Both the Allegheny and the Monongahela were reported rising at all observation points.

IT'S A PIPE. Mayor Mitchell thinks American musicians ought to submit original compositions to celebrate the opening of the Catskill aqueduct.

All the Democratic district leaders of Monongahela and the Bronx and many city officials will be present. The entertainment will be furnished by professional talent and Berger will provide the music.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Adv.
